

EDU 101 : English Grammar

This course covers the elements of English grammar. Students will study the eight parts of speech, sentence construction, and punctuation. Students will also learn about the role of grammar in a liberal arts education and develop some basic pedagogical strategies - including sentence diagramming - for teaching grammar. There are no prerequisites.

Credits 3

Session Cycle

Both Fall and Spring

Yearly Cycle

Every Year