

ART 104 : Design I

A course in visual communication offering experience in using fundamental elements of design: line, space, texture, value, form, pattern and color. Students make projects solving design problems using visual elements with respect to design principles. Media used include ink, charcoal, collage, pencil and assorted black-and-white and color media.

Credits 3

Session Cycle

Both Fall and Spring

Yearly Cycle

Every Year