

ART 308 : History of Renaissance Art

A study of both sacred and secular art in Europe from about 1300 to 1550, the development of an individualistic spirit, the beginnings of scientific naturalism and classic revival during an age which laid the foundations of the modern world. Spring, even-numbered years.

Credits 3

Session Cycle

Spring, even numbered years