

ART 310 : Survey of Non-Western Art

This course studies art created outside the Western tradition, including China, India, Japan, Africa, and native American cultures. Additionally, the course considers issues ranging from the influence of Christianity on the development of art to the anthropologic understanding of the importance of art-making Spring, even-numbered years.

Credits 3

Session Cycle

Spring Only

Yearly Cycle

Even Year